

and work culture. She talked about planning for the future and how the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion using researched based information to discuss of how this worked ,