

Parental Notifications

1. After a new student completes the initial California English Language Development Test (CELDT), the parent or guardian is given a copy of the Initial Parent Notification Letter and Instructional Programs Description either at the RAP Center or through the school.
2. Every September, the No Child Left Behind-required letter is sent to the students' homes to inform parents or guardians of